PRACTITIONER COACH CERTIFICATE[®] - PCC[®]

WHO IS IT FOR?

This is a great place to start your journey into the world of coaching, providing you with essential coaching theory, knowledge and practise. Not only is it a qualification in its own right, but it also fits seamlessly with the Diploma, thus reducing the time and cost if and when you decide to take the next step.

The Certificate course has been designed to accommodate people who require a shorter coach training programme that nevertheless delivers a robust level of content. There is absolutely no compromise on quality and you will participate in both theoretical study and practical experience.

This course is for you if:-

- you are new to coaching and are eager to start learning
- for some reason you are unable to commit to the Practitioner Coach Diploma but still want a course that develops knowledge and skills you can use with family and at work
- you want flexible learning
- you want to have the option of being able to progress your studies at a later date
- you want training from the best company in the industry.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Students on the Practitioner Coach Certificate have a choice of two slightly different course formats, depending on their learning preferences or time constraints. Both formats offer the same excellent content and consist of multiple modes of delivery - the 'Direct' option has greater face-to-face training and therefore represents a faster option whereas the 'Self-managed' option allows you to work through the material at your own pace without having to take time out to attend a course.

DIRECT OPTION

- Course book which provides a great overview of coaching today.
- One day interactive Introduction to Coaching event where you will learn all about coaching and engage in some coaching practice.
- Three day training course on which you cover:-
 - four pillars of coaching
 - listening skills in coaching
 - the ability to ask questions in coaching
 - the TGROW model
 - values
- A series of recorded lectures
- A series of recorded 'live' coaching calls
- 10 hours coaching practice

SELF-MANAGED OPTION

- Course book which provides a great overview of coaching today.
- One day interactive Introduction to Coaching event where you will learn all about coaching and engage in some coaching practice.
- Comprehensive workbook modules covering the following subjects, which guide you through the topics using consolidation exercises to embed the learning.
 - four pillars of coaching
 - listening skills in coaching
 - the ability to ask questions in coaching
 - the TGROW model
 - values
- A series of recorded lectures
- A series of recorded 'live' coaching calls
- 10 hours coaching practice

CERTIFICATION AND ACCREDITATION

Candidates submit a portfolio of evidence containing a Coaching Log, record of lectures, a book critique, some written work and reflective learning notes.

Upon completion you will be a qualified Noble Manhattan Certified Coach

The NMC Practitioner Coach Certificate® enables participants to gain international certification, awarded by the following organizations:

- Noble Manhattan Coaching – Practitioner Coach (NMC Cert)
- Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) – ILM Endorsed (no further submission or evidence required but is optional certification for which an ILM fee applies)
- International Institute of Coaching (IIC) – (IIC application process and fee applies)

ACCREDITED BY IIC (International Institute of Coaching)

The IIC is the leading independent accreditation body for the coaching industry which as a non-profit, internationally focused organisation works to promote best practice. Accreditation is only awarded to courses and individuals that meet or exceed their standards.

ENDORSED BY ILM (Institute of Leadership and Management)

The Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) was formed in 2001 by the merger of NEBS Management and the Institute of Supervision and Management, and is part of the City & Guilds Group, the UK's largest vocational awarding body.

TESTIMONIAL

Gerard could not hide the passion he has for coaching and opening up potential in people, his ethics and values come across in every word. The energy created in the room allowed a safe environment to explore not only wanting to be a coach but also learning about yourself. The content delivered on the day was outstanding.....life coaching sessions working with real challenges.
